PARIS PEACE PLANS.

France Elaborates Program For Basis of Negotiations.

CONCESSIONS EXPECTED OF CHINA.

Suitable Reparation For the Past and Sufficient Guarantees For the Future—Latest Developments in the Chinese Situation.

Paris, Oct. 5.—The foreign minister has instructed the representatives of France to sound the powers whose troops are co-operating in the extreme east regarding the adoption of a common program for negotiations with China, to this effect: "In sending their forces to China the powers proposed, first of all to deliver their legations. Thanks to their union and the valor of their troops this aim has been attained. It is now a question of securing from the Chinese government, which has given Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang full powers to negotiate and treat in its name, suitable reparation for the past and sufficient guarantees for the future. Prompted by the spirit which inspired the previous declarations of the different governments, this republic believes it sums up their real sentiments in the following points which it submits as a basis for negotiations to be entered upon immediately after the usual verification of the powers: The punishment of the principal culprits who will be designated by the representatives of the powers at Peking; the maintenance of the prohibition of the import of arms; equitable indemnities to states, societies and individuals; the formation of a permanent guard for Peking legations; dismantlement of the fortifications, military occupation of two or three points on the road from Tien Tsin to Peking which would thus be always open to the legations wishing to go to the sea or forces proceeding to Peking from the sea. Presented collectively by the representatives of the powers, supported by the presence of the international troops, it appears impossible to the government of this republic that these conditions which are so legitimate would not be accepted by the Chinese government at an early date."

Salisbury Follows Suit.

Washington, Oct. 5.—The British government has followed in the footsteps of the United States in the Chinese negotiations. It has authorized Sir Claude MacDonald, the British minister at Peking, to enter into relations with the Chinese officials just as our government did in the case of Minister Conger. It has left to its minister discretionary power to pass upon the sufficiency of the credentials of Li Hung Chang, Prince Ching and the other Chinese envoys.

Chinese Oppose French Plan.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Touching the French proposals officials here have already received intimations that the Chinese government is preparing to offer them, notably the proposition looking to the razing of the Taku forts and the interdiction of the importation of firearms.

Li Persuaded to Go.

Tien Tsin, Oct. 3, via Shanghai, Oct. 4.—Li Hung Chang and M. De Giers, the Russian minister to China, had a lengthy conference after which it was announced that Li Hung Chang would depart for Peking Thursday. Peaceful conditions prevail.

Surprised the Celestials.

Shanghai, Oct. 4.—The astonishment of the Chinese was great when they received official notification from the viceroy to the effect that foreign pressure had necessitated the degradation of prominent members of the court.

Accept Reduced Wages.

Lancaster, Pa., Oct. 5.—The 1,600 striking employees of the four rolling mills of the Susquehanna Iron and Steel company at Columbia have decided to accept the 25 per cent cut in wages and to go to work Monday provided the company will pay the puddlers' helpers three cents a heat in addition to the $3 rate. The company has not yet given an answer to the men's proposition.

Escaped But Perished.

Washington, Oct. 5.—General MacArthur reports that the following soldiers who escaped from the insurgents died in the mountains of Laguna province: Hospital corps, Alexander Medler, Edward F. Sixton; company K, Thirty-seventh infantry, John Bolan; company F, signal corps, Olaf Sundwall; company A, Thirtieth infantry, John W. Kenny.

President's Callers.

Canton, O., Oct. 5.—President and Mrs. McKinley took an extended drive through the city and out on the country roads. When they returned a number of callers were waiting to see the president. Among them were General R. B. Brown, editor of the Zanesville Courier, and George Hoge, a prominent manufacturer of eastern and central Ohio.

BOUNDARY LINE.

Marking Found Which Gives United States More Territory.

New Whatcom, Wash., Oct. 5.—It is reported that a new boundary marking has just been discovered in the disputed portion of the Mount Baker district by members of a railroad surveying party. They found a monument in the vicinity of Chilliwick lake in the middle of a wide swath which was years ago, cut through the timber. If the boundary follows the line of this swath, Red Mountain and all the disputed strip is on the American side. If the Canadians claim the line is south of the present location, the Washington authorities will be asked to make a survey. The settlement of the matter may become an international affair.

PINGREE PERSISTENT.

Will Call Special Session of Legislature on Railroad Taxation.

Detroit, Oct. 5.—Governor Pingree will call a special session of the state legislature to be convened at Lansing Wednesday or Thursday of next week. The object is to consider a joint resolution to submit to the people at the general election next month a constitutional amendment to permit the taxing of railroads and other corporations on the value of their property instead of specifically upon their earnings as at present. The Atkinson act which was declared unconstitutional by the supreme court a short time ago, provided for this change.

Recognized the Union.

Owensboro, Ky., Oct. 5.—The striking miners at Baskett won their strike for recognition of the union, carrying with it a reduction of their wages. T. C. Blain, former owner of the coal mines, never recognized the union but paid wages averaging five cents more than the union schedule. The union has been recognized and the Pittsburgh scale signed. This is probably the first strike for lower wages ever made.

End of President's Vacation.

Canton, O., Oct. 5.—It is probable that the departure of President and Mrs. McKinley for Washington next Monday will end their summer vacation in Canton. The president's departure is likely to change the plans for the Roosevelt meeting Oct. 18, which was to have been held on the McKinley lawn. The meeting will probably be held down town.

Welbeck Abbey Burned.

London, Oct. 5.—A serious fire occurred at Welbeck abbey, Nottinghamshire, the famous seat of the Dukes of Portland. The Oxford wing was gutted. The full extent of the damage cannot be estimated at present, but the priceless pictures and furniture were saved. The Duke and Duchess are absent from home.

Deated by Miss Hay.

Chicago, Oct. 5.—Lula D. Hay of Jacksonville, Ill., has sent to Senator Jones, chairman of the Democratic national committee, a sworn denial of the alleged Kingman story that she knew William J. Bryan to have been paid $150,000 by silver mine owners to cause a silver plank to be incorporated in the Kansas City platform.

Transfer of Troops.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Nearly 4,000 troops are to be withdrawn immediately from Chinese territory and transferred to the Philippines. Four large transports have been assigned to the work of transporting the troops from Taku to Manila. General MacArthur has made all arrangements for transportation.

Factory Inspectors.

Indianapolis, Oct. 5.—The national convention of factory inspectors at its final session elected John Williams of New York, president; R. M. Hall, of Ohio, secretary and treasurer. The convention adopted resolutions condemning the child labor system and making recommendations as to its regulation.

In Belmont's Stead.

New York, Oct. 5.—Perry Belmont having declined a congressional nomination the Democratic committee has chosen Rowland Miles in his stead.

Could Not Survive.

Toledo, Oct. 5.—James Condon, who had both legs and both arms cut off by the cars, died of his injuries.

Berlin, Oct. 5.—It is officially announced that representatives of Germany, Austria and France will meet in Paris in a few days to reconsider the sugar bounty question.

POLITICAL WARFARE.

Contending Forces of the Campaign Actively Engaged.

REGAL RECEPTION TO ROOSEVELT.

Bryan Tells the Hostlers All About Trusts—Prohibitionists Chide Lookout Mountain—Johnson Makes a Prediction.

Indianapolis, Oct. 5.—Hon. W. J. Bryan began his day's work at Noblesville at 8 o'clock. He spoke 15 minutes from a stand near the depot. His audience was large and liberal with applause, and Mr. Bryan rapidly traced the Democratic position on all the issues of the campaign. He again accused the Republican party with knowing nothing of any trust except the ice trust, saying they should give some attention to the Standard Oil trust which, he said, is supporting their ticket, while the people pay an increased price for oil. At Arcadia a 10 minutes' talk was made to a large audience.

There was much interest in Mr. Bryan's meeting at Noblesville. It is the county seat of a strong Republican county where in 1898, the people marched with brass bands decorated with golden rods across the platform from which Mr. Bryan spoke. He referred to this incident and the reference called out a loud laugh. There was no interruption this time and strong interest was manifested throughout the address. Mr. Bryan was accompanied on his trip by Hon. Parks Martin, chairman of the Indiana state committee; Hon. B. F. Shively, who was prominently mentioned at Kansas City for vice president; Hon. J. W. Kern, Democratic candidate for governor of Indiana; Hon. John C. Robinson who, in 1896, headed the Palmer and Buckner electoral ticket of the state. Hon. J. W. Tomlinson, national committeeman for Alabama was also with Mr. Bryan part of the day.

At Tipton, Mr. Bryan was introduced by Hon. J. W. Kern, Democratic candidate for governor, who presented him as the "next president." Mr. Bryan said in response, "I am glad to be introduced to you by the next governor of Indiana, for whatever may become of my chances in this race, I do not think there is much doubt about Indiana. Mr. Kern has only Indiana to fight for, while I have 44 other states." Mr. Bryan then discussed the trust question.

Elwood was the most important stop. The audience here covered an immense vacant plot of ground near the railroad and judging from the attention given Mr. Bryan spoke to willing ears. He gave practically all of the 30 minutes allotted to this place to the trust question, declaring that no employer has a right to vote his men.

To Receive Roosevelt.

Chicago, Oct. 5.—Republican national headquarters will be abandoned practically Saturday and Monday. At 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning Senator Hanna, Vice Chairman Payne, National Committeemen Stewart and Foster and Perry S. Heath of the press committee and others will board a special train for DeKalb, where they will meet Governor Roosevelt, whom they will escort to Chicago, arriving here shortly after 5 p. m. Monday morning the same party will leave this city with the governor, escorting him on his trip to St. Louis, where it is probable Senator Hanna will speak.

Roosevelt in Iowa.

Waterloo, Ia., Oct. 5.—A great demonstration was held here in honor of Governor Roosevelt. A three hour stop was made. Governor Roosevelt took luncheon with Speaker David B. Henderson, who joined the party here. Governor Shaw of Iowa joined the party at Fort Dodge. A platform had been erected in the city park for the speaking in the afternoon. A large crowd was present. At the conclusion of Governor Roosevelt's address, Senator Dolliver and General Curtis Guild, Jr., of Boston made speeches.

Ice Cake Aimed at Hanna.

Chicago, Oct. 5.—While Senator Hanna was speaking at the Thirty-first ward Republican meeting a 10-pound cake of ice dropped through the tent, fell on the speakers' stand barely missing Mr. Hanna's head. The police made a dash for the street but could not find the miscreant. They believe some mischievous boy did it. As the senator's carriage rolled away there were cries of "How would you like to be the ice man, Mark?"

Democratic Forecast.

Chicago, Oct. 5.—Vice Chairman J. G. Johnson of the Democratic national committee has figured out a table showing that Bryan will get 326 electoral votes, McKinley 88, and the doubtful list numbers 33. The Republicans are conceded the New England states, Iowa, Oregon and Pennsylvania, with Michigan, Minnesota and New Jersey classed as doubtful.

YOUTSEY ON TRIAL.

Court Refused to Grant Further Delay on Technicalities.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 5.—When the Youtsey trial was called the list of witnesses that the sheriff of Breathitt county had failed to summon was called, but none answered present, though the returns showed that all had been summoned since Wednesday. Mr. Crawford reported that the sheriff of Knox county had made no response at all to the rule and said that defendant wished to await a response. Judge Cantrill said the defense had been given ample time to prepare for trial and must now proceed if the commonwealth was ready.

The commonwealth insisted on trial and the judge ordered the regular panel of jurymen to be called. Colonel Nelson moved to discharge the defendant because the indictment filed in this county was only a copy, but the motion was overruled. A motion for postponement was filed and overruled. A long discussion arose over the question of filing the copy of the indictment in this court, the defense holding that this defect destroyed the jurisdiction of the court. Judge Cantrill ordered that the entry should be amended and said that the defendant having already recognized the jurisdiction of this court could not now deny it. Motion for continuance was then formally made and the court took the question under consideration and adjourned until 2 p. m.

At the afternoon session Judge Cantrill overruled the motion for continuance. The defense still insisted on its right to have returns on its summons for Knox county witnesses, but Judge Cantrill directed that the selection of a jury begin. The trial is on, but it will likely take at least two days to complete the jury.

Dragnet For Trusts.

Chicago, Oct. 5.—Hundreds of Chicago corporations are affected by steps taken by state officials to determine whether they are allied with trusts. Secretary of State Rose sent notices to various Illinois concerns asking them to make affidavit that they were in no wise connected with corporations. If these affidavits are not returned within 30 days the law permits him to institute legal proceedings against them. The fine for the first offense is from $500 to $2,000.

Sisters of Providence Sanctioned.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Bishop Maes of Covington, Ky., who is spiritual director of the order known as "Sisters of Providence" in this country has sanctioned their connection with the domestic control of the Catholic University of America. Members of this community, which is of French origin, will have also domestic charge of St. Mary's seminary, Baltimore, and St. Charles college, Howard county, Md., during the current scholastic year.

Charged With Forgery.

New York, Oct. 5.—Albert T. Patrick and Charles F. Jones, respectively attorney and secretary of the late William M. Rice, the aged millionaire, whose death in this city Sept. 23 and the subsequent certification of checks for large amounts purporting to have been signed by Mr. Rice aroused suspicion, were arraigned in police court. They were informed with forgery.

Only Routine Business.

New York, Oct. 5.—A meeting of the directors of the Southern Pacific railway company was held in the company's offices here. Chairman Charles H. Tweed said that nothing of public importance transpired at the meeting, the business being simply routine in character. Nothing was said of a successor to the late C. P. Huntington as president of the company.

Victim of the Riot.

Shenandoah, Pa., Oct. 5.—Edward Coyle, a miner aged 50, one of the victims of the riot here two weeks ago died Friday. While the riot was in progress Mr. Coyle left his home to look after the safety of his children when a stray bullet struck him below the heart. A widow and large family survive him.

Will Not Quit Work.

Pottsville, Oct. 5.—Employees of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation company, operating 10 collieries in the Panther Creek and Nesquehoning valleys, decided to continue at work. The company has given the men a 10 per cent increase and promised to make other concessions.

Gallipolis, O., Oct. 5.—Thomas J. Neal and Miss Effie Strait drove here and while they sat in their buggy were married by Mayor Merrimen.

ATTACKED BY WOMEN.

Italian Miners Who Continue at Work Pelted With Stones.

ALL THE READING MINES CLOSED.

Preparations Being Made For a Big Demonstration at Shenandoah Saturday Afternoon—Offer by The Pardee Company.

Hazleton, Oct. 5.—Eight Italians employed on the night shift of the Calvin, Pardee & Co. colliery at Lattimer, were attacked on the public road leading from that place to Hollywood by 25 women who had marched from Minesville. The women were mostly Hungarians and Italians. They left Minesville at 4 a. m., marched through Lattimer, two miles distant, and waited to attack the men working in the Lattimer mine as they passed along the road which leads to their homes at Hollywood. Some of the women were armed with clubs, but most of them carried stones of all sizes in their aprons. The first non-striking mine workers to leave the colliery were the eight Italians. They saw the women on the road ahead of them and suspecting an attack crossed the field in an endeavor to avoid them. The women, however, were on the alert and they also crossed the field and, overtaking the men, hurled showers of stones at them. The workmen did not attempt to defend themselves but ran away and were soon out of reach of the fury of the women. One man received a severe cut on the head, while several others were struck by pieces of rocks, but were not injured. The women returned to their homes, satisfied with their demonstration.

There was to have been a march of women and men from McAdoo and Jeansville to Lattimer, but for some reason it was called off. It may be made Saturday. Some of the foreigners are beginning to show an ugly disposition. They are seen in greater numbers on the highways and as some of them carry clubs a collision between them and the coal and iron police may occur at almost any time.

There is no material change in the number of men at work in this region. Officials of the Cox Brothers and company and A. Pardee & Co. collieries say they have only a few more men working. The operators say the mines are still working but will not give figures. These are independent operators who have not yet made their men any offer of increase of wages or other change in conditions.

Another Victory For Strikers.

Shamokin, Pa., Oct. 5.—The Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company reconsidered its determination to close down the North Franklin colliery at Trevorton until after the strike was settled. The foreman was notified to inform the men the colliery would be run as usual. When the whistle was blown not over a dozen miners appeared on the streets in their working clothes. They had not gone far on the way to the breaker before they were stopped by men who had worked Thursday. After a long discussion all the miners returned home saying they would not go into the mines until the trouble is ended.

Preparing For a Big Meeting.

Shenandoah, Pa., Oct. 5.—The striking mine workers here are making preparations for a demonstration Saturday similar to that which took place in Wilkesbarre. President Mitchell sent word from Hazleton that he will come here Saturday and address an open air meeting to be held by the strikers. Other officials of the United Mine Workers are expected. Invitations have been extended to the mine workers throughout the region and it is expected that 10,000 men and boys will participate.

Deated by Mitchell.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 5.—President Mitchell when shown a dispatch in which an officer of a political organization was quoted as saying the anthracite coal strike was planned by Mr. Johnson of the national Democratic committee, the mayor of Indianapolis and himself at a recent meeting in Indianapolis, said that he was reluctant to believe that the person quoted had made the charge and stated positively that the story was untrue.

New York, Oct. 5.—President J. Rogers Maxwell of the Jersey Central, and the president of another coal carrying railway who declined to be quoted for publication, made the definite announcement that no further concessions would be granted the striking miners and if they did not accept the 10 per cent offer, the strike will be fought out.

REPUBLICANS are everlastingly denouncing the Goebel law. This week when a motion was made in the State Senate to repeal that law ten Republicans voted no, and defeated the motion.

THESE Democrats are awfully honest; and yet Democratic citizens of Maysville think it all right to vote in Maysville.—Public Ledger.

The Ledger has reference probably to Mr. W. F. Power. Mr. Power has always claimed Maysville as his residence, has always voted in Maysville,—never anywhere else.

ROBERTSON'S County can boast of a rather remarkable record this year in one respect. The total cost of maintaining prisoners in the jail at Mt. Olivet the last six months was only $1.10. These figures bear out the claim of the Advance that Robertson's citizens are among the most peaceable and law-abiding in the State. And yet there was a time when they had an unenviable reputation.

DURING the past year England purchased and shipped out of the United States for war purposes 18,482 horses and 42,169 mules. The mules were for pack trains and artillery and the horses for cavalry. This demand from England figured largely in increasing the price of horses and mules, but Republicans would give all the credit to the McKinley administration. Such a claim, however, is in line with a party that claims credit for increasing prices on farm products, but which are directly the result of crop failures or shortages.

CONGRESSMAN J. HAMILTON LEWIS was one of the speakers at the big national meeting of Democratic clubs at Indianapolis this week, and here is his reference to Boss Hanna:

No bloated gorgon, swollen with party dictatorship, sits in a sacred place blinking his splenic eyes at us as signals for our every movement. Our ideas are our property; our manhood is our honor. All the people are our children and the free nation our sacred care. We abandon these to no man, and we defy the insolence of masters or the arrogance of office to take one jot of our independence from us.

The Republican platform and the one on which Mr. Yerkes is running says that "the first duty of Kentucky citizenship is to repeal the Goebel law." And yet when a motion was made in the Legislature this week to repeal that law and return to the old "County Judge system," ten Republican Senators voted against it. Had they voted on the other side, the proposition would have passed the Senate with twenty-one ayes to fourteen noes. The Courier-Journal has repeatedly claimed that the Republicans do not desire the repeal of the Goebel law, and their action in the Senate is proof positive to that effect.

WHAT TRUSTS ARE DOING.

M. L. Lockwood, of Pennsylvania, President of the National Anti-Trust League, in a speech at Indianapolis this week, said:

The infamous trust system has turned and is turning the profits of the producing forces of the nation into the coffers of the favored classes, and is fast gathering the wealth of the nation into the hands of a few men. Already, under this infamous system, a majority of all the American families are without a home of their own, the tenant farmers of America are increasing by the hundreds of thousands annually and the best blood of the nation is being turned out as paupers upon the highways. This process has gone on and on stealthily until in our great cities every tenth person that dies is a pauper buried at the public expense.

The American Anti-Trust League is organized to destroy monopoly and to re-establish equal rights. In this great reformation we must first drive from public life the subservient tools of monopolies and trusts and railway combines, and put in their places men prompted by impulse for the public welfare. When this is done the rest is easy. The ballot, my friends, the ballot is the power. The sacrifice of every patriot calls us to action, and, spurred on by the example of the immortal Lincoln, we will go forward conquering and to conquer until every vestige of special privilege shall be driven from the land and equal rights reign supreme.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, of Covington, are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine son.

Henry J. Clary and Miss May Breeze, of Mt. Carmel, were married at West Union Wednesday.

The wife of Rev. John Cheap, formerly of the sixth ward, died recently at Poland, Ky., and was buried at Ashland.

Judge Beckner, of Winchester, who is helping his old enemies, the Republicans, this time, speaks at the court house this afternoon at 1 o'clock. He arrived last night and is registered at the Central Hotel.

SCURVY TRICK

Committed by Republican Employees at Washington City.

But it Only Shows How Low Some "Civil Liberty" and "Moral Reformers" Can Stoop.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Another instance of Republican perfidy which demonstrates how thoroughly that party is prostituting the employees of all branches of public service to the work of securing the election of McKinley was unearthed to-day. No measures, no matter how vile or contemptible, are too low to be above the Republican level of a sense of fairness.

Under the law, the Campaign Committees of both parties send out large quantities of public documents from the folding rooms of the House and Senate. Ordinary honesty and a sense of public fairness has heretofore characterized the treatment of their opponents by the party in power in the document rooms and in the Postoffice Department, and it remained for the present administration to demonstrate to the public how little it cared for the sacredness of the mail or regarded the honesty of the action of its minions, so long as they obeyed the party fiat.

Recently the Democratic Congressional Committee sent out through the document room a large number of the speeches made by Senator Pettigrew on the Sulu treaty. When these documents reached their destination it was found that inserted inside of each was a four-page folder, evidently printed by the Republican managers, headed: "With Bryan's consent. He advised ratification of the peace treaty which gave us the Philippines and all the responsibility for their good government."

In the body of the pamphlet is a defense of the Sulu agreement, also a list of Democratic and Populist Senators who voted for the treaty. It also tries to defend the slavery clause and the annual salary paid the Sultan.

Either in the document rooms at the Capitol or else in the General Postoffice the employees paid from public funds were instructed to insert these documents, with a view of trying to offset the campaign of education being carried on by the Democrats.

The fallacies of the Republican argument have been exposed on every Democratic stump in the country, but the trick attempted gives the public a fair idea of the length the Republican managers will go in order to attain their ends.

Time and again mail from Democratic headquarters here has never reached its destination, and all the satisfaction the committee can get is a visit from an Inspector, and that is the last they hear from it. The idea of working the document rooms to steal the Democratic campaign thunder is novel, and to the Republicans belongs the credit of adding another contemptible trick to their already long list of scurvy actions.

He Met With Too Hot a Reception When He Attempted to Make a Speech.

[Georgetown News-Democrat.]

Mark Hanna undertook to address a meeting in Cooper Union, in New York, one evening last week. He met a hot reception and was able to stand on his legs just twelve minutes in the withering blast that came from the audience. When he got a shot he would stop short, look to one side and the other, gulp a few times and then start again. He ambled along after this style: "Well, I'm glad I am here." (A voice, "So are we." Another voice, "Got the dough bag with you?" (Laughter and applause.) "I did intend to use what little eloquence I possess to stir the people of New York to action in this campaign." (Voice, "And get the money.") "Boiled down it's free silver and free trade on one side and prosperity and development on the other." (Voice, "How about the coal miners?") "I am told on this east side of New York there are congregated thousands of workingmen." (Voice, "Yes, and they are starving.") Three cheers were proposed for Bryan and roundly given. The audience was made up of laboring men and the dispatches say they looked decidedly in earnest.

Miss Martha Barker, daughter of a former Maysville belle, is attaining prominence as an artist. Complimentary notices of her work exhibited at the Paris Exposition were published. Mrs. Charles Phister, writing from Chicago, says: "Just before she started abroad she completed miniatures of young Armour, who died in California, and of a child of Ogdon Armour. She was requested to take this last named miniature to Tiffany's as she passed through and have it wreathed in diamonds. While it was at Tiffany's the wife of a millionaire bicycle manufacturer saw it and inquired her price. Three hundred dollars was the reply. At once she was given an order to paint one."

LADIES' and MISSES' TRIMMED HATS

Our stock of French Pattern Hats is now complete. We are showing a greater variety of styles this season than ever before. Our success in this department convinces us that ready-to-wear millinery has come to stay. The hats we show are patterned after the very latest styles shown in the larger cities of the East, and it stands to reason that, being purchased in such large quantities as we buy them, they can be sold very much cheaper than you will find 'em elsewhere. You may have some prejudice against buying a ready-to-wear Trimmed Hat. Examine ours and we believe you'll change your sentiments. Prices $1.75 to $5.98.

REAL EXCELLENCE IN DRESS GOODS.

Critical and reliable judges have pronounced our Fall Dress Goods stock the best ever shown in this community. The semi-annual visits of our buyer to the Eastern markets make the above assertion appear merely as a reasonable expectation. The very latest fabric creations are displayed here. In blacks you'll find the new Satin Cloths, Soliels, Lizard Cloths, Clay Worsteds, Cheviots, Venetians, in prices from 69c. to $2.25. And then, too, those Camel's Hair Golf Cloths, Plaids, Knickerbockers, Zibelines, &c., from 29c. to $1.98. It's a stock worthy of your inspection. You need not buy.

NEW MERCERIZED UNDERSKIRTS.

We haven't the space to say much about them. Briefly, they're the best we have ever shown. Nearly all come with large accordion plaits. Prices from 89c. to $4.98. Blacks and all colors.

MAYSVILLE ON EDGE.

The Up and Down Side Seldom Seen by Strangers—Editor Sam Stairs Tells of His Visit.

[Dover News.]

Almost every city or town has its ups and downs, but few of them can boast of it, in a literal sense, as Maysville can. Few people who roam about the flattened out part of the city ever dream that a residence street, narrow, but paved about as well as any of the streets in the lower regions (of Maysville), meanders along the hillside below the bluffs. True, a roof or a gable can be seen peeping out from among the shrubbery along the cliffs by those on the lower streets who do not stop to think whether or not it is the abode of man.

Last Sunday we spent an hour of solitude on the highest bluff where the reservoir of the magnificent water-works is located. We are told that the eminent Edward Everett Hale once viewed the scene from this same spot and pronounced it the most magnificent he had ever beheld in his long life of travel throughout the world. Edward Everett did not overstate the case and we are glad he left the scene there for us to least our eyes upon fifty years later. We also left it there.

Clambering down the cliff we came upon a street in the shrubbery lined with neat residences. Just how the street got there we do not pretend to know. Perhaps some of the many balloonists who have soared up from below carelessly dropped it there. Anyhow there it is to-day, and the houses are there, too, and people who speak the English language dwell there, and wear clothes like the people of the plains below. The pretty children do not have claws, for they wear shoes, and it is a mystery how they cling to the hillside and cliffs like bats. You wonder how they get to and from their places of abode.

The man on the front veranda above can look down the chimney of the house below him. If a tot should break loose from the blue-grass sward above he is liable to go down the flue and land in the frying pan in the kitchen of his neighbor further down.

A man told us he once bought a horse raised in this neighborhood and he couldn't stand up when he got him on level ground. He had to nail his fodder up on the side of the barn and let the horse stand on his hind feet and eat it, until he got him acclimated.

But the hillside dwellers are not the least interesting of the many interesting things about old Maysville. It is a picturesque portion of the city and those living there have constantly before their eyes a scene inspiring in the extreme. But they must naturally take a one-sided view of their surroundings. They can only look two ways—straight before them or straight up. You should see Maysville from the hilltops.

Woman's Horror

Modest women dread to consult a doctor about diseases peculiar to their sex. They have a horror of private examinations and surgical operations. For this reason treatment of dangerous derangements is neglected. But the Wine of Cardui treatment, which can be adopted at home without the knowledge of any one but the patient herself, is now coming into general use. Women who take Wine of Cardui do not have to submit to a physician's local examination nor to a surgical operation. Wine of Cardui cures in the privacy of the home. No publicity, no cutting and torture and no physician or examination, while Wine of Cardui is quietly building up and strengthening the female organs. Menstruation is regulated, the drains of leucorrhoea stopped and the fallen womb restored to its place. The terrible pains which rack the body are but results of the ailments, which yield so readily to the soothing properties of Wine of Cardui. The medicine that cured Miss Garlen will certainly help you.

Wine of Cardui

Rockford, Tenn., Aug. 16, 1899.
I have suffered from womb trouble for five years. Last spring a year ago I was bedfast for six months. I paid $52 to one doctor, and he said he had done all he could for me. I had about given up, but called another doctor, who said I would have to have surgical treatment. I decided I might as well die a natural death as that, and happened to get nine days after I commenced taking Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught I could walk across my room, and in three weeks I made myself a dress. This was after my neighbors, and even my brothers and sisters, said I would never be any better. I am now in good health.
